

TEACHER HINTS:

- Write each student's name on the outside lines. Write the winner's name as they progress until you have the overall champion.
- Have the person who loses a game either go around supporting their champion, or have them play someone else who is out.
- Encourage other classes to do the same and have a year group champion, or even a school champion!

